TENANT INFORMATION (Read Carefully)

(1) If you perform the Necessary Repairs noted above before the Termination and Removal Date or the Extension Period (as defined below), you have the right to give the undersigned landlord/manager a written notice ("Notice of Correction") that you have corrected the items noted above in Cause of This Notice. The landlord/manager shall respond within a reasonable time thereafter, stating whether they agree that the Necessary Repairs have been satisfactorily and timely performed. If you give the Notice of Correction at least 14 days prior to the end of the Termination and Removal Date or the Extension Period (as defined below), the landlord's/manager's failure to respond to you shall be a defense to a termination of your tenancy based upon this Notice.

(2) You have the right to extend the Termination and Removal Date up to an additional 60 days ("Extension Period") if: (a) The Necessary Repairs required by the landlord/manager involve exterior painting, roof repair, concrete pouring or similar work and the weather prevents that work during a substantial portion of the period prior to the Termination and Removal Date, or (b) The nature or extent of the Necessary Repairs is such that it cannot reasonably be completed by the Termination and Removal Date because of factors such as the amount of work necessary, the type and complexity of the work and the availability of necessary repair persons. If you would like to extend the Termination and Removal Date, you must give the landlord/manager written notice describing the necessity for an extension. This written request must be given a reasonable amount of time prior to the end of the Termination and Removal Date.

(3) A copy of this Notice may be given by the landlord/manager to any lienholder of your home.

(4) If one or more of the items noted above in Cause of this Notice recurs within 12 months after the Date of Delivery/Mailing appearing at the top of this Notice, your tenancy may be terminated and your home will be required to be moved upon at least 30 days' written notice specifying the violation(s) and the date of termination of tenancy.

(5) You are still required to pay rent up to the Termination and Removal Date and, if applicable, during the Extension Period. The landlord/manager does not waive the right to accept rent during these periods. If your paid rent covers days that extend beyond these periods they will be returned to you within 6 days after the end of the Termination and Removal Date, or if applicable, the Extension Period. The Notice of Correction or a request for the Extension Period should be sent to the following:
